Stockholm, Nov. 20. O S. The 18th an Expreſs came hither from Carlſcrona, with Letters of the 14th Inſtant from Lieutenant General Lieven, which brought an Account that on the 11th, the Day before that General left Stralſund, the King of Sweden arrived at that Place. The ſaid General has only by this Expreſs ſent the Senate a ſhort Letter from his Majeſty, ordering only ſome Pages, Footmen, and Cooks, to be forth with diſpatched over to him; but he writes that he has alſo Letters with him from the King to the Queen Grandmother and to the Princeſs, but as he deſigned to ſet out from Carlſcrona the next Morning after the Expreſs came away, he was deſirous of having the Honour to deliver them with his own Hands. This unexpected News of the King's ſo ſudden Arrival in his own Territories, cauſes inexpreſſible Joy among all ſorts of People. General Meyerfeldt ſets out from hence to Day, in order to go over to attend the King at Stralſund. Private Letters which came by the forementioned Expreſs from Carlſcrona relate, that immediately upon General Lieven's Arrival there, a Frigate called the White Eagle was ordered to Sail for Pomerania to fetch over the Hereditary Prince of Heſſe-Caſſel, who was expected at Stralſund the 16th Inſtant. By Yeſterday and to Days Poſts, circular Letters are ſent to the Governours of the ſeveral Provinces of this Kingdom, to order Thanks to be given to God in all Churches for his Majeſty's ſafe Return.

Copenhagen, Decemb. 8. N. S. Orders are given for ſome Regiments to reinforce thoſe which are already in the Poſts near the Rivers Trave, Steekenirz, and Bille, to guard the Paſſage into Holſtein; and all the Troops which are in that Dutchy, have Orders to advance to the ſame Poſts in Caſe of Neceſſity. Orders are alſo given, for the Regiments which are in Jutland to march to Holſtein. Five Men of War are fitting out, to joyn two which are at Sea and form a ſmall Squadron to cruiſe in theſe Parts. General Dewitz ſet out from hence two Days ago: He is to be the King's firſt Plenipotentiary at the Congreſs at Brunſwick; but before he goes thither, he is to proceed to Berlin about ſome Negociation with that Court. 'Tis ſuppoſed, that if the King of Sweden marches to attack the Daniſh Army in Holſtein, General Dewitz will return immediately to his Poſt in the Army. 'Tis ſaid the King will go into Holſtein as ſoon as the Troops are all drawn together there, but this is not as yet certain: Since the Duke Adminiſtrator of Holſtein declares himſelf openly an Enemy to this Court, it has been reſolved to take Poſſeſſion of his Biſhoprick of Eutin, Hambourg, Dec. 18. N. S. The Preparations of War are continued at Berlin. A good Number of Cannon, with Bombs and Bullets, are already drawn out of the Arſenal there: 20 Battallions and 10 Squadrons are actually on the March, and like Orders are ſent to other Regiments: Count Dohna, General of Foot, and the Lieutenant-Generals Natſmar and Finck, are nominated to command this Body of Forces: The Prince of Anhalt-Deſſau is to be Generaliſſimo; but if the King puts himſelf at the Head of them, as is believed, that Prince will accompany His Majeſty, as a Volunteer: All the Pruſſian Officers have received expreſs Orders to repair to their reſpective Regiments, on pain of being caſhiered: 'Tis thought theſe Forces will have their general Rendezvous appointed in the Neighbourhood of Stetin. The King of Sweden continues at Stralſund, where the Hereditary-Prince of Heſſe Caſſel was expected ſome Days ago: M. de Croiſſy, Brother of the Marquis de Torcy, is alſo expected there, in the Quality of Envoy from the King of France. Count Flemming being appointed by the King of Poland to be his Plenipotentiary at the Congreſs at Brunſwick, is arrived from Warſaw at Dreſden in his Way thither. Yeſterday General Dewitz ſet out from hence for the Court of Berlin. The Danes have taken Poſſeſſion of the Biſhoprick of Eutin, and the Daniſh Reſident here has communicated to all the other Miniſters the Reaſons which have induced the King his Maſter to that Proceeding. Baron Eoſander, Quarter-Maſter-General in the Service of the King of Sweden, is arrived at Berlin, and has made ſome Propoſitions on the Part of his Swediſh Majeſty to the King of Pruſſia.

Ratiſbon, December 10. N. S. The Envoy of Denmark has, by Order from his Court, communicated here the Copy of the Treaty between the Duke Adminiſtrator of Holſtein and Count Steinbock, for admitting the Swediſh Troops into Tonningen. The Conferences for the Evacuation of Bavaria are ſtill continued at Munich, and the Bavarian Forces will halt about Strasbourg till ſome Points are ſettled with the Congreſs at Hailbron, and will then march to the Upper Palatinate, where the Elector Palatine's Troops remain without making the leaſt Preparation yet for retiring.

Hague, Dec. 21. N. S. The 12th Inſtant M. Heym, one of the Directors of the Revenues of this Province, and Deputy from the City of Delft, died ſuddenly in the
